2. General rules concerning the Site

2.1. Use of the Site must comply with these STCU.

2.2. Autonet owns the intellectual property rights to the Site.

2.2. The following are prohibited: reproduction and/or distribution without Autonet's permission of the content of the Site, unauthorized modification of the Site, subjecting the Site to computer attacks, accessing/using the Site in a way that may lead to its malfunction or blocking.

2.3. Violation of the rules of access/use of the Site may be sanctioned by Autonet, including by restricting or blocking the access to the Site.

2.4. Visiting/Using the Site shall be carried out in accordance with the legislation in force and the provisions of the STCU and in such a way as not to prejudice the proper functioning of the Site.

2.5. Visitors/Users are obliged to consult the STCU and conduct themselves in accordance with the requirements contained in the STCU.

2.6. Autonet has the right to modify the content of the Site at any time it deems it appropriate to do so and whenever it deems that its interests require changes to be made.

2.7. Any misconduct may be sanctioned, including suspension or cancellation of any user account. In the case of payments for the use of certain services offered on a subscription basis, suspension or cancellation of the account does not entitle the User to recover the subscription paid.

2.8. Visitors/Users have the right to use the forms on the Site (e.g. request for quotation, service, complaints, return of goods) for the purposes for which they have been published on the Site.

2.9. Autonet provides its customers with several facilities/services as shown below (the list is not exhaustive).

a) Electronic Seller catalogue/WebCat, which allows Customers to:

- search and identify the Products. In the case of the function of identifying spare parts for motor vehicles based on chassis series, the results are provided by YQ Service, s.r.o., a Slovak company with the registration number 47490934 and registered office in Vozárova 5, 040 17 Košice-Juh, Slovakia. Autonet is not responsible for the accuracy of the information presented by YQ Service s.r.o. nor for the observance by YQ Service s.r.o. of the intellectual property rights of the original equipment manufacturers;
- order the selected spare parts;
- select the billing details, desired payment method and preferred delivery method;

- WebCat subscriptions. A quarterly subscription is charged for the use of the technical data in WebCat under the following conditions: Autodata Premium subscription: mounting times + inspection data + technical data.

b) Autonet Service Manager

Autonet Service Manager is a software application dedicated exclusively to car repair shops. For details, please contact your Autonet sales representative. For the Autonet Service Manager service, the rates agreed between the parties are charged.

c) FastCat app

The FastCat app is designed for smartphones and tablets. The FastCat app enables:

- request for quotations concerning the Products;
- ordering the selected spare parts.

The FastCat app can be downloaded for free from the website www.fastcat.ro.

d) redirecting to Garage Assist forms

Garage Assist forms are used for the installation of the service equipment and for various reports. For details, please contact your Autonet sales representative.

2.10. Autonet has no control whatsoever over the content of sites over which Autonet has no rights, which may be accessed through links present on the Site. The purpose of these links is to facilitate the access to those sites by the Visitors/Users of the Site. Autonet is not responsible for the content and/or functioning of these sites over which Autonet has no control.

3. Special Rules and Procedures applicable to the www.webcat.ro website/Seller's Electronic Catalogue (WebCat)

3.1. Through the websites www.webcat.ro and www.webcat-solutions.com it is possible to access the Seller's Electronic Catalogue (WebCat), which contains the products displayed for sale by the Seller as a wholesale distributor of parts and accessories for motor vehicles, the Product codes, the Product code search programme, the offer programme, the order programme. The programs and applications found in the content of www.webcat.ro website are the property of DVSE Gesellschaft für Datenverarbeitung, Service und Entwicklung mbH, a German company with its registered office in Lise-Meitner-Str. 4, D-22941 Bargteheide. These programmes and applications are used on www.webcat.ro and www.webcat-solutions.com websites under licenses that have been granted to Autonet by the intellectual property rights holder. Autonet's intellectual property rights and licensing rights do not pass to Visitors/Users of the Site as a result of Visiting/Using this Site, and they are under the obligation not to infringe these rights. By using the programmes/applications, the User acknowledges the intellectual property rights over the programmes/applications and undertakes to observe these intellectual property rights. The user is responsible for compliance with these terms of use and rights by his or her agents/delegates.

3.2. In order to have access to the Seller's Electronic Catalogue it is necessary that:

- a) the user has previously completed the Registration;
- b) the User expressly accepts the STCU as well as the Privacy Policy published on the Site. The fulfilment of these formalities shall be considered as full and freely consented acceptance of the STCU provisions and shall be done by ticking the box next to the acceptance text;
- c) the user authenticates by clicking the "Login" command.

3.3. Password and User data can be changed at any time by the User Account Holder (UAH) after accessing the User Account and after Login;

3.4. The person providing data to Autonet, including for the purpose of Registration, is obliged to provide true and accurate data. Autonet shall not be liable for the provision by the User/Customer of unreal or inaccurate data.

3.5. UAH is obliged to update the data provided to Autonet.

3.6. UAH is responsible for the way he/she manages the User Account.

3.7. Ordering the Products from the Seller's Electronic Catalogue can only be carried out after the User/Customer has previously logged in.

3.8. After Authentication, the User/Customer will be able to select the Products he/she intends to order and will be able to submit the order. The transmission of the order has the value of transmitting a firm offer to purchase.

3.9. UAH shall be liable to the Seller for all the orders placed through the User Account, and all the orders so placed shall be deemed to have been validly submitted and shall be binding on the Seller. UAH has exclusive right of control over the User Account and is fully and unconditionally responsible for entrusting the User Name and/or Password to other persons. The liability of UAH as defined above does not exclude the liability of other persons who have caused damage to the Seller by improper/unauthorized use of the User Account.

4. Special Rules and Procedures concerning the FastCat App

4.1. In order for the FastCat App to be used it is necessary that:

- a) the FastCat app has been installed on a smartphone or tablet device;
- b) the User has a User Account (Registration has been completed);
- c) the User expressly accepts the STCU as well as the Privacy Policy published on the Site. The fulfilment of these formalities shall be considered as full and freely consented acceptance of the STCU provisions and shall be done by ticking the box next to the acceptance text;
- d) the user authenticates by clicking the "Login" command.

4.2. In order to obtain offers from the Seller, the User will scan the vehicle registration certificate and upload the resulting file to the FastCat Application. After uploading this file, the FastCat Application will process only the information relating to the chassis series. No personal data will be processed.

4.3. Based on the information resulting from the processing of the chassis series of the vehicle, the Seller will send offers to the User.

4.4. Ordering Products through the FastCat App can only be done after the User/Customer has previously Logged in.

4.5. After Login, the User/Customer will select the Products he/she intend to order, complete and submit the order.

4.6. UAH shall be liable to the Seller for all orders placed through the FastCat App, and all the orders so placed shall be deemed to have been validly submitted and shall be binding on the Seller. TCU has exclusive right of control over the User Account and is fully and unconditionally responsible for entrusting the User Name and/or Password to other persons. The liability of UAH as defined above does not exclude the liability of other persons who have caused damage to the Seller by improper/unauthorized use of the User Account.

4.7. The provisions of Articles 3.2-3.6 shall apply accordingly to STCU.

5. Limitation of Autonet liability

5.1. Autonet does not guarantee that the Site will operate uninterrupted or that it is free from defects. Autonet shall not be liable for any damages caused as a result of the failure of the Site to function, in whole or in part. In the case of services offered through the Site on a subscription basis, if the services cannot be accessed during the periods agreed by the parties, the subscribers shall be entitled to a pro rata reduction of the subscription fee, according to the same contractual terms.

5.2. Visitors/Users are solely responsible for obtaining the equipment necessary to access the Site. Visitors/Users are responsible for the way they configure their equipment and/or IT programs through which they access/use the Site. Visitors/Users must use their own protection software against viruses.

5.3. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Autonet's liability for any damages suffered by Visitors/Users of the Site in connection with Visiting/Using the Site is excluded. In all cases in which Autonet may be held liable, its liability shall be limited to compensation for the damage directly caused by it. If the agreements between the parties provide for a greater limitation of Autonet's liability, those provisions providing for a greater limitation of Autonet's liability shall prevail over the STCU provisions.

6. Cookie files

6.1. For more information on the use of cookies please see the Cookie Policy published on the Site.

7. Privacy Policy

7.1. For more information on Autonet's privacy policy, please refer to the Privacy Policy published on the Site.
